III. PRESENTATION

12. Presentation on the general overview of the duties, responsibilities and mission of the County of Los Angeles' Quality and Productivity Commission.
 - Victoria Pipkin-Lane, Executive Director, Quality and Productivity Commission (16-1948)

Ms. Victoria Pipkin Lane, Executive Director, Quality and Productivity Commission (QPC) and Ms. Mary Savinar, Program Manager, QPC, provided an overview of the QPC. Ms. Pipkin Lane stated that the QPC was created by the County Board of Supervisors on June 15, 1980. The Commission is comprised of seventeen members with five appointed by the BOS, ten by the County's Chief Executive Office and two by the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO). One third of the Commission's appointed members are women.

She also stated that the QPC's mission is to provide advice, innovative ideas, assistance and support the County's elected officials, department heads, managers and employees to promote effectiveness, efficiency and quality of County public services. The Commission has a Department Visit Program which facilitates collaborations, partnerships, and inter departmental communication opportunities that improve services and maximize use of available resources. There is also a Productivity Investment Fund that provides one time funding to departments proposing innovative, collaborative or productivity enhancing projects in need of initial investment funding. She further stated that the QPC was vital in bringing hybrid cars into County service many years ago.

Ms. Mary Savinar, Program Manager, QPC, added that the QPC was instrumental in the Digital archiving of the County District Attorney's Office case managing records.

Ms. Pipkin Lane concluded by stating that there may be opportunities for QPC and the CW to collaborate on their Leadership Conference. She will contact David Sommers of Countywide to come address the CW's concerns regarding the use of social media and present at a future CW meeting. She will also provide a one page Best Social Media Practices document to Commission staff for distribution to the CW.

President Shevlin thanked Ms. Pipkin Lane and Ms. Savinar for taking time to come and present to the CW.

IV. DISCUSSIONS

- 13. Discussion and status of the CW hosting the Association of California of Commissions for Women (ACCW) conference scheduled to be held on June 25, 2016. (16-2334)
